

FREE Parents As Teachers Home Visitation Program to Kootenai & Shoshone County Families!

ICARE is a strengths-based child development & school readiness program based on the idea that parents are their child's first and most influential teacher.

Home visits are designed to meet the needs of all families by:

- Providing current, reliable and practical information on a variety of parenting topics related to raising children from pregnancy thru age 6.
- Providing support and problem-solving techniques.
- Promoting school readiness.
- Connecting each family to additional community services.
- Monthly Group Connections

Who Can Enroll?

- Pregnant women
- Families with children birth thru age 6
- Families with children with developmental delays
- Families of the Armed Services
- Families involved with Child Protective Services (children must reside in the home)

SERVICES ARE FREE and provided by nationally certified Parent Educators for up to three years utilizing the Best Practice Parents As Teachers Curriculum.
